X D. The nature and seriousness of the danger to any person or the community that would be posed by Defendant's release are as follows: potential danger of continued violations of the law, the defendant is unlikely to abide by conditions of release

X E. Rebuttable Presumptions:

☐ 1. In a case which is eligible for a hearing pursuant to I. A., the Court relied on the rebuttable presumption of detention in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e), that Defendant has been convicted of a Federal or State offense listed in I. A. 1., 2., 3., or 4., which was committed while Defendant was on release for a Federal, State, or local offense, and less than five years has elapsed since Defendant was so convicted or released from imprisonment, and the Court found that Defendant did not rebut the presumption.

X 2. The Court/Grand Jury found probable cause to believe that Defendant committed:

☐ a. A controlled substance offense for which the maximum penalty is ten years or more, or

☐ b. An offense under 18 U. S. C. § § 924(c), or 956(a), or 2332b, or

X c. An offense involving a minor victim under 18 U.S.C. § 2423(a); and the Court relied on the rebuttable presumption of detention in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e), and the Court found that Defendant did not rebut the presumption.

V. ADDITIONAL DIRECTIVES

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(i)(2)-(4), the Court directs that:

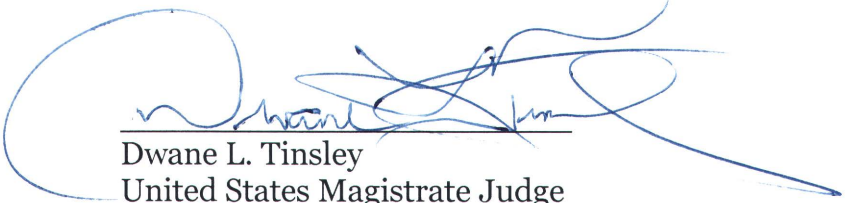

A. Defendant be committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal; and

B. Defendant be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel; and

C. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which Defendant is confined shall deliver the Defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
